

Drown

Send you down the path
Just to see whether you'd come back
All the clouds are in vain
Because I'm
Still in pain

And the water in the river flows in one direction
No Rebel to be found
Once you'll try to swim against the stream
Rebel you will drown

When the maelstrom pulls you down
Rebel you will drown
Rebel you will drown
When the maelstrom pulls you down
You will drown
Rebel you will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown

Water running down your back
You will see the light
Blood dripping down your neck
You wouldn't want to fight

And the water in the river flows in one direction
No Rebel to be found
Once you'll try to swim against the stream
Rebel you will drown

When the maelstrom pulls you down
Rebel you will drown
Rebel you will drown
When the maelstrom pulls you down
You will drown
Rebel you will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown
You will drown
