

Maybe

Maybe we should've fought
but I know I should've thought of that before because now it's too late.
I believe it
would've been worth it.
Now all I do is hurt.

My heart's got a crack
still I don't want you back.

Maybe we could've won,
all we did was to move on.
We could've been right but we just didn't want to fight. Maybe we could've won
maybe we just weren't strong.
We could've been right, we could've been wrong
but we weren't that strong.

And under different circumstances we are dancing under stars.
In another dimension we've never heard of broken hearts. And

but we weren't that strong.

Since you've been gone
I've been trying to find my way.
Moving on
I'm not sure if you should stay.
Why was I holding on
if I knew we were wrong?
Please just tell me it's okay
if I'm moving on!

And now you're gone.
Now you're gone.
